

I and my household think that calls from radio and TV stations are telemarketing calls that should be treated like all other telemarketing calls. There should be no exceptions to the national do-not-call list.

Thank you for reading our feeling sand views on this matter.

Sincerely,

Dee Dee Torrez